KEEP UP

WITH THE TIME

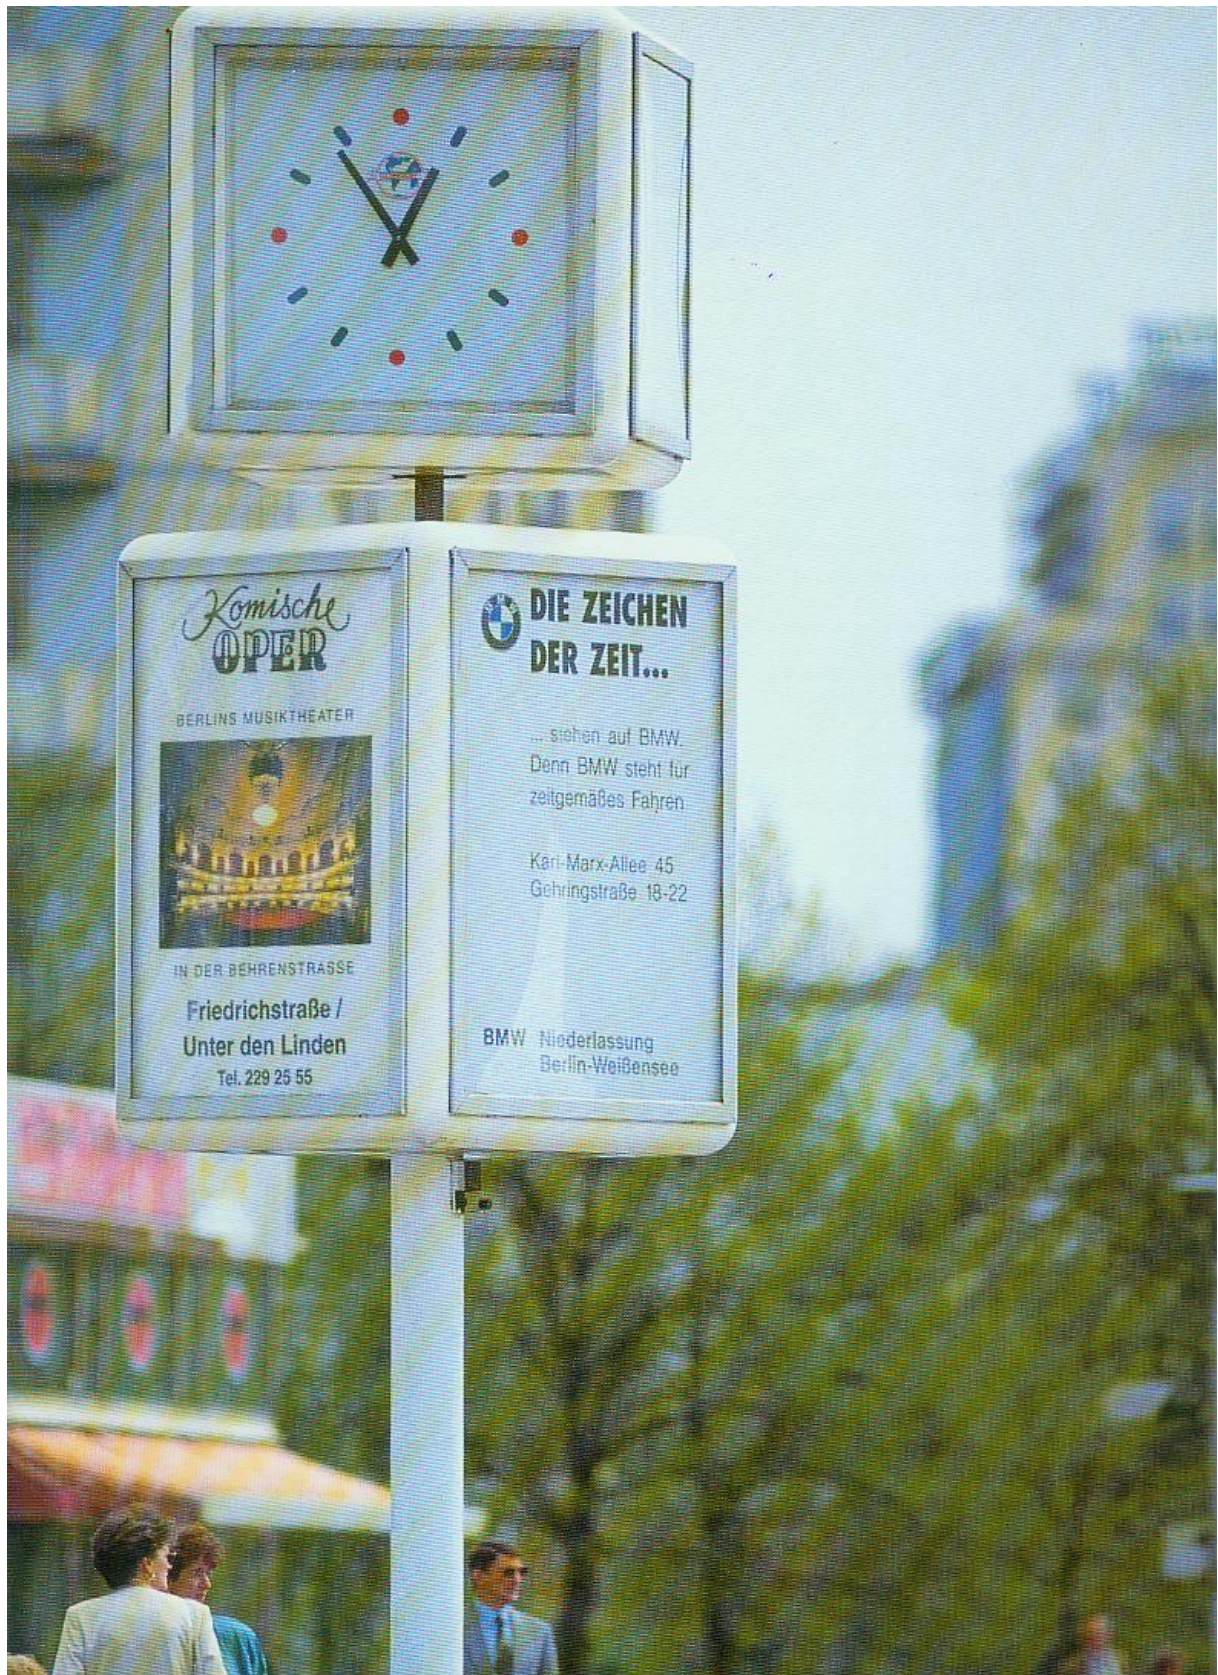

SUCCESSFUL ADVERTISEMENT AROUND ADCLOCK

Nothing receives attention in our hectic time as frequently as the exact time. Business discussions, dates and appointments dictate the daily routine for everyone of us.

Since the times of the legendary „Persiluhr“ in Berlin down to the present day people exploit the unavoidable glance at ADCLOCKS in order to campaign the time for its own benefit.

ADCLOCKS are installed as prestige, branded or product advertisement at well-frequented locations, whereas they are set up in the immediate proximity of the points of sale (POS) as directional finder.

Companies of all shapes and sizes use ADCLOCKS as long-term advertisement. Local enterprises (e.g. bakeries) as well as national, international and multinational companies (e.g. McDonald's, BMW) take advantage of the striking ADCLOCKS.

KEEP UP WITH THE TIME

ADCLOCKS attract attention. The high-precision radio-controlled master clock shows the accurate time on the millisecond exactly.

ADCLOCKS turn so that your advertisement can be noticed at any time by 4 sides. ADCLOCKS show changing motives and are automatically lit up, if dawn begins. Briefly said: ADCLOCKS ensure for the fact that the time runs day and night for your advertisement completely after your individual idea.

ADCLOCKS are everywhere in the middle of attention:

Installed at public places, on pavements, traffic roundabouts, bus stops or in front of schools, hospitals, train stations, parking lots, sports grounds or inside shopping malls, ADCLOCKS attract constant attention from passing vehicle and pedestrian traffic due to the service they offer – without of habit effect.

In the age of communication-society, self-presentation has become ever more important. It has become necessary to offer diversity and creativity to prevent the advertiser to become one of many.
